- (b) Unless the context requires otherwise or a word is defined in this Agreement, words defined in the Corporations Act, or the Rules have the same meaning in this Agreement.
- (c) The single includes the plural and vice versa.
- (d) Unless the context otherwise requires, a reference to any legislation or legislative provision includes any statutory modification or re-enactment of, or legislative provision substituted for, and any subordinate legislation issued under that legislation or legislative provision.
- (e) Each part of this Agreement is severable from the balance of this Agreement and if any part of the Agreement is illegal, void, invalid or unenforceable, then that will not affect the legality, effectiveness, validity or enforceability of the balance of this Agreement.
- (f) No failure by the Broker to exercise, and no delay by the Broker in exercising, any right, power or remedy in connection with this Agreement will operate as a waiver of that right, power or remedy. No single or partial exercise of any right, power or remedy will preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power or remedy or the exercise of any other right, power or remedy.
- (g) This Agreement is not to be interpreted against the Broker's interests merely because the Broker proposed these provisions or because the Broker relies on a provision of this Agreement to protect themselves.

2.2 Where any term of Part A of this Agreement is inconsistent with a specific provision in Parts B, C, D, E, F, G or H which is part of the Agreement between the Broker and the Client, the specific provision shall prevail over the term in Part A with which it is inconsistent, to the extent of the inconsistency.

The Client and the Broker agree that the terms of their relationship in respect of Transactions (including this Agreement) and any dealings between them concerning Transactions are subject to, and that they are bound by, the Corporations Act and the Rules.

4 Appointment of Broker

4.1 The Client appoints the Broker as its agent for the purpose of executing Orders as instructed by the Client from time to time, clearing and settling such Transactions, and to do all things necessary or incidental to the execution, clearing and settlement of those Transactions in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The Client authorises the Broker to:

The Client must notify the Broker in the Application Form or otherwise in writing of any such authorisation, setting out the name and specimen signature of the Authorised Agent.

5.2 The Client may at any time, by notice to the Broker, revoke the appointment of an Authorised Agent and substitute another person as an Authorised Agent. Where another person is appointed Authorised Agent, the notice must include the full name, telephone number, fax number, email address and specimen signature of that person and the notice must be verified by the Authorised Agent and, in the case of a corporate Client, by a director of the Client.

5.3 The Broker may treat a communication given, or apparently given by an Authorised Agent as having been given by the Client, and rely on that communication without further enquiry.

5.4 The Client is and remains solely liable and responsible for all acts and omissions of its Authorised Agent notwithstanding the act or omission of the Authorised Agent was:

- (a) outside their actual or ostensible authority; or
- (b) in error, fraudulent, negligent, in breach of its fiduciary duties or criminal, but only to the extent the Broker was not actually aware the Authorised Agent was acting outside authority or aware of any fraud, negligence or breach.

Subject to this Agreement, the Broker will deal (or will instruct third parties to deal) on the Client's behalf in financial products in accordance with the Client's instructions, or, where no specific instructions are provided, at the discretion of the Broker in accordance with applicable Rules and any applicable policies of the Broker.

The Client must immediately notify the Broker if the Client becomes aware that there is an error in the Confirmation. The Client agrees not to make, and releases the Broker from any right the Client may have to make, any Claim against the Broker for any Loss incurred or suffered by the Client which may arise in connection with the exercise of any power pursuant to any Rules (whether or not the Broker has given the Client a Confirmation in respect of the Transaction).

- (a) the Broker does not endorse nor provide the facility for the Client to execute short sales of securities or other financial products unless otherwise agreed by the Broker and in accordance with applicable Rules; and

- (b) when placing an Order to sell financial products, the Client (or the Authorised Agent of the Trading Account) must provide the Broker with all relevant information as required by the Corporations Act, any other applicable laws or the Rules.

16.2 When the Client places a sell Order with the Broker, the Client must notify the Broker, whether the sale is a long sale or a covered short sale. For this purpose:

- (a) a long sale is a sale of financial products that the Client already owns at the time the Client places the sale Order (but does not include financial products which the Client has borrowed from a securities lender); and
- (b) a covered short sale is a sale of financial products where the Client has, at the time of placing the sell Order, a legally binding commitment from a securities lender to lend the financial products to the Client.

16.3 The Client acknowledges that the Broker will not be permitted to execute a sale Order unless the Client has informed the Broker of the relevant category of sale in clause 16.2 to which the Order relates.

16.4 The Client agrees that, each time the Client places a sale Order and notifies the Broker of the relevant category of sale to which the sale Order relates, the Client will be taken to have warranted and represented to the Broker that the sale falls within the relevant category.

16.5 If the Client places the sale Order with the Broker by telephone, the Client may satisfy their disclosure obligations by advising the Broker whether the sale is a 'long sale' or a 'short sale' under an exemption.

16.6 If the Client places the sale Order through the Broker's Online Service, the Client will need to satisfy their disclosure obligations as set out in clause 16.2 by clicking on the mandatory fields provided through the Online Service software.

16.7 The Client also agrees that if the Client sells financial products as a result of the exercise of an exchange traded call option sold (written) by the Client or an exchange traded put option bought (taken) by the Client, the Client must inform the Broker whether or not the sale is a long sale; that is whether or not the Client has a presently exercisable and unconditional right to vest the financial products in the buyer of the securities at the time the relevant option is exercised. The Client must notify the Broker of this:

- (a) if the Client requests the Broker to exercise the option – at the time the request is made; or
- (b) otherwise – as soon as practicable after the Client becomes aware that the option has been exercised.

17 Information, telephone recording and privacy

17.1 The Client authorises the Broker to record any telephone conversation between the Client and the Broker, with or without an audible tone warning device. The Client agrees that the Broker may use such recordings for the purposes of monitoring compliance with the Client's and the Broker's respective regulatory and contractual obligations, and resolving disputes. If there is a dispute between the Broker and the Client, the Client has the right to listen to any recording of any conversation between the Broker and the Client. Nothing in this Agreement obliges the Broker to keep a recording longer than 90 days.

17.2 The Client authorises the Broker, to the extent permitted by law, to make any inquiries regarding the Client's credit worthiness from any person including, without limitation, any bank or credit reporting agency or the Client's employer.

- (f) to ensure that legal and regulatory requirements are met.

17.4 The Broker may use or disclose any information about the Client which is collected by the Broker from the Application Form or otherwise in accordance with an authority or consent given by the Client. Without limiting the above, the Client specifically acknowledges and agrees that the Broker may:

- (a) use the information to assess the application of the Client to open a Trading Account;
- (b) use or disclose the information to a third party, (including an overseas recipient or the operator of any Settlement Account), in connection with the opening of a Settlement Account or in connection with any other services provided to the Client, under or for the purposes of this Agreement;
- (c) use or disclose any such information to the extent required by law or the Rules;
- (d) disclose any tax file number(s) provided by the Client to any relevant person or share registry;
- (e) provide the Client's name and credit rating to such credit reporting agencies;

- (g) provide the information on a confidential basis to a prospective purchaser of, or investor in, the Broker or all or part of the business of the Broker.

17.5 The Client acknowledges and authorises the Broker to disclose any Trading Account information (including, without limitation, the Client's name, address, contact and other personal details; each Authorised Agent's name, address, contact and other personal details; details of orders placed and trades and other transactions entered into by a Client or on their behalf; other activities or dealings conducted by a Client or on their behalf by, through or in connection with the services made available by the Broker; copies of contract notes; details of payments made by or to a Client; the Client's Trading Account number; details as to the state of the Client's Trading Account; the Client's CHES holdings; and details of the Client's Settlement Accounts) to any third parties that make available services to the Client or the Broker in connection with the Client's Trading Account.

17.6 The Client will take all reasonable steps to deliver information or documentation to the Broker, or cause information or documentation to be delivered to the Broker concerning Transactions which are requested by a person having a right to request such information or documentation (including, without limitation, ASIC, ASX, Chi-X, SSX, ASX Clear or ASX Settlement). The Broker is authorised to produce the information or documentation to the person making the request.

The Broker agrees to comply with its obligations under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) as amended from time to time, to the extent that they are relevant to this Agreement.

18 Anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing

18.1 The Client acknowledges that:

- (a) the Broker is subject to various anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing laws ('AML/CTF Laws') which include among other things prohibitions against any person dealing with the proceeds of, or assets used in, criminal activity (wherever committed) and from dealing with any funds or assets of, or the provision of services to, any person or entity involved (or suspected of involvement) in terrorism or any terrorist act; and

19.2 The Client represents and warrants that at the time the Client completes the Application Form and at all times during the term of this Agreement:

37.2 A Linked Order will only become active when the previous Order that it is linked to has been completely filled. If the previous Order is only partially filled, any subsequent Linked Orders will not be activated.

37.3 If the Client or the Broker cancels an Order which has subsequent Linked Orders linked to it, the Order and all subsequent Linked Orders will be cancelled. If any Order has been partially filled before it is cancelled, the Client is responsible for settling that part of the Order that has been filled.

38 One Cancels the Other Orders

38.1 The Broker may in its absolute discretion allow the Client to place a pair of One Cancels the Other Orders.

38.2 Where a Client has placed a pair of One Cancels the other Orders, when one Order of the pair has been triggered the other Order in the pair will be cancelled.

39 Triggering a Conditional Order

39.1 The Broker will use its reasonable endeavours to place an order arising from a Conditional Order in accordance with the Specified Instructions on or as soon as practicable following the occurrence of the relevant Trigger for that Conditional Order. However, the Broker reserves the right to review an Order that results from a triggered Conditional Order and to refuse to place that Order on the market in certain circumstances including (but not limited to) one or more of the following:

- (a) if the basis for quotation for the financial product has changed and the Client has not varied the Client's Conditional Order;
- (b) if the financial product has been subject to a trading halt and the Client has not varied the Client's Conditional Order;
- (c) if the Broker believes that the Client's instructions are ambiguous, incomplete or unclear; or
- (d) if the Broker believes that the instruction may contravene this Agreement or another agreement between the Broker and the Client, the Corporations Act, the Rules or may result in an unfair or disorderly market.

39.2 If the Conditional Order is a sell Order and a Trigger occurs, the Broker will only place the Order in respect of that number of financial products which the Broker controls in respect of a CHES Holding of the Client. The Client will be taken to have represented to the Broker that the Order, as submitted, constitutes a long sale for the purposes of clause 16. To the extent that the Conditional Order related to a larger number of financial products, the balance of the Conditional Order will be cancelled.

39.3 If the Conditional Order is a buy Order and a Trigger occurs, the Broker will only place the Order in accordance with the Specified Instructions where the full amount required by the Broker to settle the Transaction for the purchase of financial products, together with all brokerage, taxes, costs, duties and charges in respect of that Transaction, is available for use in the Settlement Account of the Client, at the time the Trigger occurs.

39.4 If at the time the Trigger occurs, the full amount required by the Broker to settle the Transaction together with all brokerage, taxes, costs, duties and charges in respect of that Transaction, is not available for use in the Settlement Account of the Client, the Broker may place the Order in respect of that number of financial products which, excluding all brokerage, taxes, costs, duties and charges in respect of that Transaction, is equal to the value of approximately 90% of the available balance of the Settlement Account of the Client (or such other percentage as determined by the Broker), at the time the Trigger occurs.

39.5 If a Trigger specifies price as the criteria for the Trigger, and that criteria is satisfied in the closing price auction effected by an Exchange under the Rules, the Trigger will be deemed not to have occurred and no Order for the financial products will be placed by the Broker as a result of the criteria having been satisfied in the closing price auction.

39.6 The Client acknowledges that where multiple Conditional

Orders are received, each with the same or similar Trigger conditions, and a Trigger occurs in respect of the Conditional Orders, the Orders will be placed into the market as expeditiously as possible, however the placement into the market, and the resulting allocation of the Orders, may not necessarily be in the same order as the Orders were placed or created.

39.7 The Client acknowledges that an error, failure, delay or malfunction in the Broker's systems or the Exchange Systems may result in an order not being entered in accordance with the terms of the Conditional Order. For example, a Conditional Order may not be triggered if the relevant Trigger occurred during an error, failure, delay or malfunction in the Broker's systems or the Exchange Systems. The Broker may cancel a Conditional Order where there has been a system error, failure, delay or malfunction.

D. Trading in Derivatives Products

The terms and conditions in this Part D apply to Derivatives Transactions where the Broker accepts the Client's application to open a Trading Account with the Broker to deal in exchange traded options or other exchange traded derivatives (other than Warrants) ('Derivatives Products').

A term used in this Part D which is defined in the ASX Clear Rules has the meaning given in the ASX Clear Rules. If the Client requires a copy of these definitions, please contact the Broker.

40 Application of Rules

40.1 The Client and the Broker agree that the terms of their relationship in respect of Derivatives CCP Contracts and any dealings between them concerning Derivatives CCP Contracts are subject to, and that they are bound by the Corporations Act, the Rules, and the procedures, customs, usages and practices of ASX Clear and its related entities, as amended from time to time in so far as they apply to, Derivatives CCP Contracts.

41 Client documentation and acknowledgements

41.1 The Client acknowledges that they have read and understood the documents (if any) given to them by the Broker as may be required by the Rules.

41.2 The Client acknowledges that Derivatives Transactions give rise to a risk of loss as well as a potential for gain.

41.3 The Client acknowledges that the Client has given consideration to the Client's objectives, financial situation and needs and has formed the opinion that dealing in Derivatives Transactions is suitable for the Client's purposes.

41.4 The Client agrees not to breach, either alone or in concert with others, any position or exercise limits imposed by an Exchange or ASX Clear under their respective Rules or of which the Broker otherwise notifies the Client.

41.5 The Client acknowledges that they may only enter into Derivatives Transactions if they are not a U.S. person as that term is defined in Rule 902(k) of Regulation S under the Securities Act 1933 (United States).

42 Authority

42.1 The Client acknowledges that when the Client enters into Derivatives Transactions, the Client is either:

- (a) acting as principal; or
- (b) acting as intermediary on another's behalf and are specifically authorised to enter into Derivatives Transactions, by the terms of:
 - (i) an Australian Financial Services Licence held by the Client;
 - (ii) a trust deed (if the Client is a trustee); or
 - (iii) an agency contract.

43 Nature of the Broker's obligations

43.1 Notwithstanding that the Broker may act in accordance with the instructions of, or for the benefit of, the Client in relation to Derivatives Transactions, the Client acknowledges that any Derivatives Transaction arising from any order submitted to an Exchange is entered into by the Broker as principal.

43.2 Upon registration of a Derivatives Transaction with ASX Clear in the name of the Broker (at which time a Derivatives CCP Contract is created for each contract the subject of the Derivatives Transaction), the Client acknowledges that the Broker incurs obligations to a ASX Clear as principal, even though the Broker may have entered into the Derivatives Transaction on the Client's instructions.

44 Rights of client

The Client acknowledges that any benefit or right obtained by a Broker upon registration of a Derivatives Transaction with ASX Clear by novation of a contract under the ASX Clear Rules or any other legal result of registration is personal to the Broker and the benefit of that benefit, right or legal result does not pass to the Client. The Client has no rights, whether by way of subrogation or otherwise, against an Exchange or ASX Clear in relation to any transactions by the Broker in the Derivatives Transactions.

45 Dealing as principal

Without limiting clause 20, the Client acknowledges that the Broker may, in certain circumstances, be permitted under the Corporations Act and the Rules, take the opposite position in a Derivatives Transaction, either acting for another client or on its own account.

46 Client funds and property

46.1 The Broker must deal with any money and property paid or given to the Broker in connection with Derivatives Transactions in accordance with the Corporations Act and the Rules. The Client acknowledges that the Client's monies and the monies of other clients of the Broker may be combined and deposited by the Broker in a trust account or clients' segregated account. The Client acknowledges that all monies credited to the clients' segregated account maintained by the Broker may be used by the Broker to meet the default of any client of the Broker.

46.2 The Client agrees to maintain cleared funds in the Client's Cash Account or Bank Account for such sum as shall from time to time be required to settle the Client's obligations or such other sum as may otherwise be required by the Broker.

47 Deposits and margins

47.1 The Broker may call for payment of money by the Client or the provision of other security by the Client, which the Broker considers, in its absolute discretion, appropriate in connection with the obligations incurred by the Broker in respect of Derivative Transactions entered into on the Client's account.

47.2 The Client becomes liable to provide to the Broker for:

- (a) any initial margin which ASX Clear requires from the Broker under the ASX Clear Rules in respect of any Derivatives Transaction at the time the transaction is entered into, regardless of when a call is made by the Broker under clause 47.1; and
- (b) any variation margin which ASX Clear requires from the Broker under the ASX Clear Rules in respect of any Derivatives Transaction at the time the Broker becomes liable to pay that amount to ASX Clear, regardless of when or whether a call is made by the Broker under clause 47.1.

47.3 The time by which the Client must pay any amount called under clause 47.1 or provide security is of the essence. The Client must pay the amounts called, or provide the relevant security as soon as possible and otherwise within 12 hours of the call for payment.

47.4 The Broker may, in its absolute discretion, vary its own initial margin and variation margin requirements, provided that the Broker calls the minimum amounts required by ASX Clear.

47.5 It is important that you monitor your margin requirements, as they vary daily and must be covered at all times. You are responsible for managing your Account and having sufficient collateral readily available to support open positions. If the Client fails to meet the call or lodge security, or provide evidence as determined by the Broker in its sole discretion of their ability to meet margin as required under this clause 47, then the Broker may, without prejudice to any other rights or powers under this Agreement and in its absolute discretion (but is not obliged to) close out, without notice, all or some of the Client's positions in Derivative Products.

47.6 The Client authorises the Broker to withdraw or otherwise apply funds or financial products held on the Client's behalf by the Broker, or funds in the Settlement Account, to partially or fully satisfy any call under clause 47.1.

47.7 The Broker reserves the right to conduct daily stress tests on Client positions. The Broker may alter the Client's margin requirements at any time and in its sole discretion. Where the Client fails to provide adequate security, the Broker may in its absolute discretion, close out, without notice, all or some of the Client's positions in Derivative Products.

47.8 The Client's liability for calls under clause 47.1 is not limited to the amount, if any, deposited with the Broker or in the Settlement Account.

48 Cover

48.1 If the Client lodges any Cover with the Broker at any time, the Client represents and warrants to the Broker that:

- (a) the Client is the beneficial owner of that Cover; and
- (b) the Client's title to the Cover has not been restricted or limited in any way.

48.2 The Client authorises the Broker to make any financial products lodged with, or otherwise held by, the Broker available to ASX Clear as Cover.

48.3 The Client must not, without the prior consent of the Broker:

- (a) sell or dispose of the Cover;
- (b) create or allow to exist a security interest over, or any other interest in, the Cover or this Agreement; and
- (c) assign or transfer all or any part of its rights in, or obligations under, the Cover or this Agreement.

48.4 The Client agrees that no interest is payable on any Cover provided to the Broker.

49 Equitable mortgage of Collateral

49.1 If the Client has lodged uncertificated financial products as Collateral, the Client authorises the Broker to effect a reservation of those financial products in the Broker's name or in the name of ASX Clear in a CHES Holding in accordance with the ASX Settlement Rules.

49.2 Upon lodgement of financial products with the Broker under clause 49.1 until ASX Settlement reserves those financial products in a subposition (in accordance with the ASX Settlement Rules), the financial products will be subject to an equitable mortgage from the Client to the Broker.

49.3 The Client authorises the Broker to effect a release of the financial products from the subposition at any time in accordance with the ASX Settlement Rules. Upon such release, the financial products will again be subject to an equitable mortgage from the Client to the Broker.

49.4 The equitable mortgage created under clauses 49.2 and 49.3 will secure:

- (a) any initial margin or variation margin obligations that arise in respect of the Trading Account; and
- (b) any amount which is owed by the Client to the Broker as a result of a Default.

49.5 If new rights arise in relation to the Collateral lodged under this clause 49, the rights are to be held, renounced and transferred on the same basis under this Agreement as the financial products in the relevant CHES Holding and will become subject to an equitable mortgage in favour of the Broker.

49.6 If there is a Default, then the Broker may deal with the Collateral and rights or interests attaching to the Collateral in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

49.7 The Broker will release the equitable mortgage granted under this clause 49 in respect of any or all Collateral upon satisfaction of the Client's obligations under this Agreement.

50 Collateral to be sponsored by the Broker

50.1 The Client must appoint the Broker as their Controlling Participant for the purposes of CHES in relation to financial products that are to be lodged with the Broker as Collateral from time to time.

50.2 All Collateral the Client lodges with the Broker will be subject to the Sponsorship Agreement.

50.3 In registering financial products with the Broker as Collateral, the Client acknowledges and agrees that:

- (a) the Collateral will be subject to a fixed charge ("Charge") in favour of ASX Clear from the time they are reserved to ASX Clear and will remain subject to the Charge until ASX Clear permits the financial products to be withdrawn;
- (b) the Charge secures all amounts and obligations owing by the Broker to ASX Clear in connection with the Client's Trading Account;
- (c) they have read and understood the ASX Clear Rules and ASX Settlement Rules, in so far as those rules relate to the Collateral and the Charge, including ASX Clear's power to deal with the Collateral on default by the Broker in respect of the Client's Trading Account and in particular, the ASX's power of sale in relation to the Collateral without notice to the Client;
- (d) the Client acknowledges and agrees that unless ASX Clear otherwise agrees in writing, the Collateral is not and may not be subject to any other security interest, other than a security interest provided to a margin lender, which provides that the Charge in favour of ASX Clear has priority over the margin lender's security interest or a security interest as permitted under the ASX Clear Rules or ASX Settlement Rules; and
- (e) financial products held as Collateral will only be released by ASX Clear if replacement Cover is provided, which may impact settlement obligations and/or the ability to participate in certain corporate actions, such as buy back offers.

51 Default

51.1 Each of the following constitutes a Default:

- (a) the Client breaches, whether by act or omission, a term of this Agreement;
- (b) the Client fails to pay, or provide security for, amounts payable to the Broker;
- (c) the Client fails to pay the amounts due in respect of a Derivatives CCP Contract;
- (d) the Client fails to perform any obligation arising pursuant to the exercise or settlement of a Derivatives CCP Contract;
- (e) the Client fails to fulfill any settlement obligations in respect of a Transaction under this Agreement.
- (f) a guarantee lodged by the Client, or lodged by a third party at the request of the Client, in favour of the Broker or ASX Clear is withdrawn without the consent of the Broker or becomes ineffective and other replacement security acceptable to the Broker is not provided;

- (g) the Client makes any representation that is incorrect or misleading in any material way, with the result that Loss is, or is likely to be, incurred by the Broker;
- (h) the Broker believes that the Client may not be able to meet its obligations to the Broker in respect of one or more Derivative CCP Contracts, including, without limitation, strict compliance with any time limits;
 - (i) the Client becomes bankrupt;
 - (j) the Client enters into a composition or scheme of arrangement for the benefit of creditors;
- (k) the Client, if a company, goes into liquidation, voluntarily or otherwise (except for the purpose of reconstruction), or the Client or another person appoints a liquidator, receiver, administrator or official manager in respect of the Client or its assets;
- (l) the Client, if a natural person, dies or become of unsound mind or if the Client or the Client's estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under any law relating to mental health;
- (m) the Client imposes a moratorium on payments to creditors or ceases, or threatens to cease, carrying on business;
- (n) in the absence of making alternative arrangements, the Client is not contactable by the Broker within 24 hours in order for the Broker to obtain instructions in relation to any Derivatives CCP Contracts registered in the Client's Trading Account; or
- (o) any other event occurs which the Broker and the Client have agreed constitutes a Default.

51.2 If a Default occurs, the Broker may, in addition to any other rights which the Broker may have against the Client (including rights in other Parts of this Agreement), without giving prior notice to the Client, take any action, or refrain from taking action, which it considers reasonable in the circumstances in connection with Derivatives CCP Contracts registered in the Client's Trading Account and, without limitation, the Broker may:

- (a) enter into one or more transactions to effect the close out of one or more Derivatives CCP Contracts in accordance with the ASX Clear Rules;
- (b) exercise one or more Derivatives CCP Contracts in accordance with the ASX Clear Rules;
- (c) abandon any one or more Derivatives CCP Contracts not yet exercised;
- (d) cover in whole or in part open positions by entering into further Derivatives CCP Contracts;
- (e) take any other action a reasonably prudent broker might take in the circumstances to protect the Broker's personal obligation incurred when dealing on the Client's behalf;
- (f) sell (or arrange for the sale of) any or all of the Client's property (including, but not limited to any Collateral lodged with ASX Clear or the Broker, any property that is sponsored by the Broker in a CHESS Holding or held by the Broker), in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and apply the proceeds towards satisfaction of monies owing by the Client to the Broker;
- (g) apply any Cash Cover or other monies that the Client has deposited with ASX Clear or the Broker by way of set-off; or
- (h) exercise any other rights conferred by the Rules or this Agreement or perform any other obligations arising under the Rules or this Agreement in respect of those Derivatives CCP Contracts.

In respect of any action which the Broker takes, or refrains from taking under this clause 51.2, the Client must account to the Broker as if the Broker took, or refrained from taking, the action on the instructions of the Client and, without limitation, the Client is liable for any deficiency and is entitled to any surplus which may result.

51.3 The Broker may sell (or arrange for the sale of) any Collateral:

- (a) either by public auction, private treaty or tender;
- (b) for cash or on credit;
- (c) in one lot or in parcels;
- (d) with or without special conditions or stipulations as to title or time or mode of payment or purchase money or otherwise;
- (e) with power to allow the whole or any part of the purchase money to be deferred (whether with or without any security);
- (f) whether or not in conjunction with the sale of any property to any person; and
- (g) upon such other terms and conditions as the Broker may consider appropriate.

The Broker is not liable for any Loss occasioned by a sale of the Collateral.

51.4 Upon any sale purporting to be made in the exercise of the powers conferred by this Agreement or otherwise, no purchaser will be:

- (a) bound to ask whether any default has been made or otherwise as to the propriety or regularity of any sale; or
- (b) affected by express notice that any such sale is unnecessary or improper.

Despite any irregularity or impropriety in any such sale, the sale will be deemed to be authorised by such powers, as regards the protection of the purchaser or other party to any such dealing or disposal, and will be valid accordingly.

52 Appointment of ASX Clear and its directors and managers as agent

The Client irrevocably appoints severally ASX Clear, and every director, manager and assistant manager for the time being of ASX Clear, at the option of ASX Clear to do all acts and execute all documents on the Client's behalf for the purpose of exercising the powers conferred on ASX Clear under the ASX Clear Rules including, without limitation, the power to transfer or close out Derivatives CCP Contracts if the Broker commits an event of default under the ASX Clear Rules.

53 Right to refuse to deal

The Client acknowledges that the Broker may at any time refuse to deal in, or may limit dealings in, Derivatives Products for the Client. The Broker is not required to act in accordance with the Client's instructions where to do so would constitute a breach of the Rules or the Corporations Act. The Broker will notify the Client of any refusal or limitation as soon as practicable.

54 Termination of Part D of this Agreement

Upon termination of this Part D in accordance with clause 23 of this Agreement, the Broker will close out all Derivatives CCP Contracts held by the Broker and registered in the Client's Trading Account, unless, in accordance with a direction from the Client, the registration of those Derivative CCP Contracts is transferred to another Broker in accordance with the Rules. Termination does not affect the existing rights and obligations of the Client or the Participant prior to termination.

55 Revised terms prescribed by an Exchange or ASX Clear

55.1 If an Exchange or ASX Clear prescribes amended minimum terms for a Client Agreement for Derivatives Transactions for the purposes of the Rules (New Terms), to the extent of any inconsistency between the terms in this Part D and the New Terms, the New Terms will override the terms of this Part D and apply as if the Client and the Broker had amended this Agreement to include the New Terms.

55.2 The Broker will provide a copy of the New Terms to the Client as soon as practicable after an Exchange or ASX Clear prescribes the New Terms.

56 Change of Participant

56.1 If the Client receives a Participant Change Notice from the Broker and the Participant Change Notice was received at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the date proposed in the Participant Change Notice for the change of Participant, the Client is under no obligation to agree to the change of Participant, and may choose to do any of the things set out in clauses 56.2 or 56.3.

56.2 The Client may choose to terminate this Part D in accordance with clause 54 or by giving instructions to the Broker, indicating that the Client wishes to transfer its Derivatives CCP Contracts to another Participant.

56.3 If the Client does not take any action to terminate this Part D and does not give any other instructions to the Broker which would indicate that the Client does not agree to the change of Participant then, on the Effective Date, this Part D will have been taken to be novated to the new Participant and will be binding on all parties as if, on the Effective Date:

- (a) the new Participant is a party to this Part D in substitution for the Broker;
- (b) any rights of the Broker are transferred to the new Participant; and
- (c) the Broker is released by the Client from any obligations arising on or after the Effective Date.

56.4 The novation in clause 56.3 will not take effect until the Client has received notice from the new Participant confirming that the new Participant consents to acting as the Participant for the Client. The Effective Date may as a result be later than the date set out in the Participant Change Notice.

56.5 The Client will be taken to have consented to the events referred to in clause 56.3 by the doing of any act which is consistent with the novation of this Part D to the new Participant (for example by giving an instruction to the new Participant), on or after the Effective Date, and such consent will be taken to be given as of the Effective Date.

56.6 Part D continues for the benefit of the Broker in respect of any rights and obligations accruing before the Effective Date and, to the extent that any law or provision of any agreement makes the novation in clause 56.3 not binding or effective on the Effective Date, then this Part D will continue for the benefit of the Broker until such time as the novation is effective, and the Broker will hold the benefit of this Part D on trust for the new Participant.

56.7 Nothing in clause 56 will prevent the completion of Derivatives Transactions and Derivatives CCP Contracts by the Broker where the obligation to complete those transactions arises before the Effective Date and this Part D will continue to apply to the completion of those transactions, notwithstanding the novation of this Part D to the new Participant under this clause 56.

E. Warrant Agreement

The terms and conditions in this Part E apply where the Client instructs the Broker to deal in Warrants.

57 Acknowledgements by Client

The Client acknowledges the following in relation to any Transactions in respect of Warrants:

- (a) that they have read and understood the documents (if any) given to them by the Broker as may be required by the Rules;
- (b) that the Client is aware that a Warrant has a limited life and cannot be traded after its expiry date;
- (c) that the Client is aware that Warrants do not have standardised terms of issue and acknowledges that it the responsibility of the Client to become aware of the terms of issue of any Warrant in which the Client chooses to invest;

- (d) that the Client is aware that Warrants may be subject to adjustments after their initial issue and it is the responsibility of the Client to become aware of any adjustments which may have been made to any Warrant in which the Client chooses to invest;
- (e) that the Client is aware that admission to trading status of a Warrant does not imply that an Exchange or SEGC gives any guarantee or warranty as to the viability of the Warrant-issuer or any Guarantor; and
- (f) The Client acknowledges that the failure of the Warrant-issuer or the guarantor (if applicable) to fulfil their obligation does not give rise to a Claim against an Exchange, handling Market Participants or SEGC.

F. Dealing In Partly Paid Securities

The terms and conditions in this Part F apply to Transactions relating to Partly Paid Securities, as defined below.

58 Meaning of Partly Paid Security

In this Part F, a Partly Paid Security means a financial product quoted on an Exchange for which the holder may be liable to pay a call or instalment in accordance with the terms of issue and for which an amount remains unpaid, but does not include a quoted product issued by a no liability company or a Derivatives Product.

59 Acknowledgements by Client

If the Client instructs the Broker to deal in Partly Paid Securities on the Client's behalf, the Client acknowledges and agrees that the following terms apply in respect of those dealings:

- (a) the Client is aware that a Partly Paid Security is a financial product which may require the Client to make a further payment or payments at some time in the future;
- (b) the Client is aware that it is the Client's responsibility to obtain and read a copy of any prospectus, product disclosure statement or information memorandum issued by an issuer which sets out the particular features of, and rights and obligations attaching to, a Partly Paid Security before the Client places an Order to buy a Partly Paid Security;
- (c) the Client is aware that the Client may be liable for further payments on a Partly Paid Security and that a failure to make a further payment by the specified date(s) may result in an issuer of a Partly Paid Security or their associates or agents taking action, including legal action, against the Client to recover the outstanding payments and/or may result in the forfeiture of my entitlement to the Partly Paid Security;
- (d) the Client is aware that in certain circumstances the Client may be liable to make a further payment on a Partly Paid Security despite the fact that the Client may have disposed of a Partly Paid Security prior to the date that a further payment falls due;
- (e) the Client is aware that the Client should monitor announcements made by the issuer of a Partly Paid Security and that it is the Client's responsibility to inform itself/themselves of the date or circumstances that a further payment falls due and the last day that the Client can dispose of the Partly Paid Security before the Client is liable for a further payment;
- (f) the Client is aware that the amount of a further payment may be unrelated to the financial performance of a Partly Paid Security and that the amount of the further payment may exceed the intrinsic value of a Partly Paid Security at the time a further payment falls due; and

- (g) the Client acknowledges that an obligation on the Client in relation to a Partly Paid Security, including an obligation to make a further payment, does not give rise to a claim against an Exchange or the SEGC.

G. CHESSE Sponsorship Agreement

The terms and conditions in this Part G apply if the Client wishes to appoint the Broker as its Controlling Participant to establish and control CHESSE Holdings of financial products for the Client in CHESSE.

60 Interpretation

A term used in this Part G (also referred to as the Sponsorship Agreement) which is defined in the ASX Settlement Rules has the meaning given in the ASX Settlement Rules. If the Client requires a copy of these definitions, please contact the Broker.

61 Acknowledgements by Client

61.1 The Client acknowledges that before agreeing to be bound by this Sponsorship Agreement, the Client:

- (a) had the opportunity to view the terms and conditions of this Sponsorship Agreement;
- (b) was provided with a written explanation of the effect of this Sponsorship Agreement;
- (c) understood the effect of this Sponsorship Agreement; and
- (d) was provided with telephone contact details which enabled the Client to obtain an explanation of the effect of the Sponsorship Agreement from the Broker.

61.2 The Client acknowledges that if a transfer of financial products is taken to be effected by the Broker under Section 9 of the ASX Settlement Rules and the source holding for the transfer is a CHESSE Holding under the Sponsorship Agreement, then the Client may not assert or Claim against ASX Settlement or the relevant issuer that the transfer was not effected by the Broker or that the Broker was not authorised by the Client to effect the transfer.

62 Broker's and Client's rights and obligations

62.1 The Client appoints the Broker as its Controlling Participant with respect to the Client's CHESSE Holding, and authorises the Broker to do any act in accordance with the ASX Settlement Rules for the purposes of:

- (a) performing its obligations;
- (b) acting as Controlling Participant or agent in relation to that Holding; and
- (c) converting the mode of holding of the relevant financial products.

62.2 Where the Client authorises the Broker to buy financial products, the Broker is not obliged to transfer financial products into the CHESSE Holding of the Client until payment for those financial products has been received.

62.3 If the Client has not paid for the purchase of financial products and the Broker has made a demand that the Client pays for the financial products, the Broker may sell those financial products at the Client's risk and expense (including brokerage and GST).

62.4 If the Broker claims that an amount lawfully owed to it by the Client has not been paid, the Broker may refuse to comply with the Client's Withdrawal Instructions. The Broker may only refuse to the extent necessary to retain financial products with a value equal to 120% of the current market value of the amount claimed, in the Client's CHESSE Holding.

62.5 Subject to clauses 62.3 and 62.4 the Broker will initiate any Transfer, Conversion or other action necessary to give effect to Withdrawal Instructions within two (2) Business Days of the date of the receipt of the Withdrawal Instructions.

62.6 The Broker will not initiate any Transfer or Conversion into or out of the Client's CHESSE Holding without the express written authority of the Client.

62.7 The regulatory regime which applies to the Broker includes the Corporations Act, and the Rules The Client can obtain information as to the status of the Broker under these regulatory regimes from the relevant regulatory authorities, including ASIC, ASX, Chi-X, SSX, ASX Clear and ASX Settlement. The Client may lodge a complaint against the Broker or any Claim for compensation with these regulatory authorities.

63 Information

The Client must supply all information and supporting documentation which is reasonably required to permit the Broker to comply with the registration requirements, as are in force from time to time, under the ASX Settlement Rules.

64 Exchange Traded Options, pledging and sub-positions

64.1 Where the Client informs the Broker of an arrangement with ASX Clear to lodge financial products in its CHESSE Holding as Cover under the ASX Clear Rules, and informs the Broker of the arrangement the Client:

- (a) authorises the Broker to reserve the financial products in Sub-position so that the financial products come under the control of ASX Clear and are subject to the security interest granted in favour of ASX Clear to secure performance by the relevant Clearing Participant of its obligations to ASX Clear under and in accordance with the ASX Clear Rules 14.6.7;
- (b) authorises any subsequent dealing (including, without limitation, any transfer) of the reserved Financial Products in accordance with the Rules and ASX Clear Rules;
- (c) acknowledges that the financial products will remain subject to that security interest for so long as those financial products remain reserved in Sub-position in accordance with ASX Clear Rules 14.6.7; and
- (d) authorises the Broker to take whatever other action is reasonably required by ASX Clear in accordance with the ASX Clear Rules and ASX Settlement Rules to give effect to that arrangement.

64.2 Where the Client informs the Broker that a charge or any other interest in financial products in the Client's CHESSE Holding has been given, the Client authorises the Broker to take whatever action is reasonably required by the person in accordance with the ASX Settlement Rules to give effect to or record that interest.

64.3 Where the Broker, in accordance with this Agreement or the ASX Settlement Rules, initiates any action which creates a sub-position over financial products in the Client's CHESSE Holding, the Client acknowledges that the right of the Client to transfer, convert or otherwise deal with those financial products is restricted in accordance with the ASX Settlement Rules.

64.4 Nothing in this Sponsorship Agreement operates to override any interest of ASX Clear in the financial products.

65 Fees and indemnities

65.1 The Client will pay all Brokerage fees and associated transactional costs within the period prescribed by the Broker.

65.2 The Client indemnifies and must keep the Broker indemnified and held harmless against, and must pay the Broker for any liability, loss, cost (including legal costs on a full indemnity basis), expense, charge, tax or duty suffered, incurred or payable by the Broker in connection with:

- (a) performing its obligations under this Sponsorship Agreement;
- (b) acting as Controlling Participant or agent in relation to that CHESSE Holding; or
- (c) any breach of this Sponsorship Agreement by the Client.

66 Change of Controlling Participant

66.1 If the Client receives a Participant Change Notice from the Broker and the Participant Change Notice was received at least twenty (20) Business Days prior to the date proposed in the Participant Change Notice for the change of Controlling Participant, the Client is under no obligation to agree to the change of Controlling Participant, and may choose to do any of the things set out in clauses 66.2 or 66.3.

66.2 The Client may choose to terminate this Sponsorship Agreement by giving Withdrawal Instructions under the ASX Settlement Rules to the Broker, indicating whether the Client wishes to:

- (a) transfer the Client's CHESSE Holding to another Controlling Participant; or
- (b) transfer the Client's CHESSE Holding to one or more Issuer Sponsored Holdings.

66.3 If the Client does not take any action to terminate this Sponsorship Agreement in accordance with clause 66.2 above, and does not give any other instructions to the Broker which would indicate that the Client does not agree to the change of Controlling Participant then, on the Effective Date, this Sponsorship Agreement will have been taken to be novated to the New Controlling Participant and will be binding on all parties as if, on the Effective Date:

- (a) the New Controlling Participant is a party to this Sponsorship Agreement in substitution for the Broker;
- (b) any rights of the Broker are transferred to the New Controlling Participant; and
- (c) the Broker is released by the Client from any obligations arising on or after the Effective Date.

66.4 The novation in clause 66.3 will not take effect until the Client has received notice from the New Controlling Participant confirming that the New Controlling Participant consents to acting as the Controlling Participant for the Client. The Effective Date may as a result be later than the date set out in the Participant Change Notice.

66.5 The Client will be taken to have consented to the events referred to in clause 66.3 by the doing of any act which is consistent with the novation of this Sponsorship Agreement to the New Controlling Participant (for example by giving an instruction to the New Controlling Participant), on or after the Effective Date, and such consent will be taken to be given as of the Effective Date.

66.6 This Sponsorship Agreement continues for the benefit of the Broker in respect of any rights and obligations accruing before the Effective Date and, to the extent that any law or provision of any agreement makes the novation in clause 66.3 not binding or effective on the Effective Date, then this Sponsorship Agreement will continue for the benefit of the Broker until such time as the novation is effective, and the Broker will hold the benefit of this Sponsorship Agreement on trust for the New Controlling Participant.

66.7 Nothing in clause 66 will prevent the completion of CHESSE Transactions by the Broker where the obligation to complete those Transactions arises before the Effective Date and this Sponsorship Agreement will continue to apply to the completion of those Transactions, notwithstanding the novation of this Sponsorship Agreement to the New Controlling Participant under clause 66.3.

66.8 If the Client wishes to transfer their CHESSE Holdings (which comprise AQUA Products) to another Controlling Participant, the notice of change will only be accepted if the new Controlling Participant is accredited in accordance with the settlement of AQUA Products.

67 Complaints and compensation

67.1 Except as referred to in this clause 67, no compensation arrangements apply to the Client in relation to this Sponsorship Agreement.

67.2 The Client acknowledges that if the Broker breaches the Sponsorship Agreement:

- (a) and the Client makes a Claim for compensation from the Broker, the ability of the Broker to satisfy that claim will depend on the financial circumstances of the Broker;
- (b) the Client may make a Claim on the Chi-X fidelity fund in the circumstances set out in section 11 of the Chi-X Operating Rules;
- (c) the Client may make a Claim on the SSX fidelity fund in the circumstances set out in section 9 of the SSX Business Rules;
- (d) the Client may make a Claim on the National Guarantee Fund (NGF) for compensation in the circumstances specified under Part 7.5, of Division 4 of the Corporations Act and the Corporations Regulations 2001 (Cth)
- (e) the Client with holdings that comprise AQUA Products may make a Claim under the relevant compensation arrangements; and
- (f) the Client may refer that breach to any regulatory authority, including ASX Settlement.

(For more information on the circumstances in which the Client may or may not be eligible to make a Claim on the NGF or for information on the NGF generally, contact SEGC.)

67.3 The Client may lodge a complaint against the Broker or any claim for compensation with ASIC, ASX, Chi-X, SSX, ASX Clear, ASX Settlement or the Australian Financial Complaints Authority.

67.4 The complaints and compensation schemes outlined in this clause, with the exception of the Australian Financial Complaints Authority, do not cover International Securities.

68 Suspension from CHESSE

68.1 If the Broker is suspended from CHESSE participation, then subject to the assertion by the liquidator, receiver, administrator or trustee of that Broker of an interest in financial products controlled by the Broker the Client may within twenty (20) Business Days of ASX Settlement giving Notice of Suspension, give notice to ASX Settlement requesting that any of the Client's CHESSE Holdings be removed either:

- (a) from the CHESSE Subregister; or
- (b) from the control of the suspended Broker to the control of another Participant with whom they have concluded a valid Sponsorship Agreement pursuant to ASX Settlement Rule 12.19.10.

If the Client does not give such notice, ASX Settlement may effect a change of Controlling Participant under ASX Settlement Rule 12.19.11 and the Client will be deemed to have entered into a new Sponsorship Agreement with that Participant on the same terms as this Sponsorship Agreement. Where the Client is deemed to have entered into a Sponsorship Agreement, the new Controlling Participant must enter into a Sponsorship Agreement with the Client within ten (10) Business Days of the change of Controlling Participant.

69 Loss of legal capacity

69.1 The Client acknowledges that:

- (a) in the event of the Client's death or bankruptcy, a Holder Record Lock will be applied to all of the Client's CHESSE Holdings in accordance with the ASX Settlement Rules unless the Client's legally appointed representative or trustee elects to remove the Client's CHESSE Holdings from the CHESSE Subregister; and
- (b) in the event of the death of the Client, this Sponsorship Agreement is deemed to remain in operation in respect of the legally appointed representative authorised to administer the Client's estate, subject to the consent of the legally appointed representative, for a period of up to twelve calendar months after the removal of a Holder

Record Lock applied pursuant to clause 69.1(a) unless the Client's legally appointed representative or trustee elects to remove the Client's CHESS Holdings from the CHESS Subregister.

69.2 If the Client is a joint Holder, the Client acknowledges that:

- (a) where one of the Holders dies, the Broker will transfer all of the Client's CHESS Holdings under the Joint Holder Record into new CHESS Holdings under a new Holder Record in the name of the surviving Holder/s, and that this Sponsorship Agreement will remain valid for the new CHESS Holdings under the new Holder Record; and
- (b) in the event of the bankruptcy of one of the Holders, the Broker will:
 - (i) establish a new Holder Record in the name of the bankrupt Client, transfer the interest of the bankrupt Holder into new CHESS Holdings under the new Holder Record and request that ASX Settlement apply a Holder Record Lock to all Holdings under that Holder Record (unless the legally appointed representative of the bankrupt Holder elects to remove the CHESS Holdings from the CHESS Subregister); and
 - (ii) establish a new Holder Record in the name/s of the remaining Holder/s and Transfer the interest of the remaining Holders into new CHESS Holdings under the new Holder Record.

- (a) by notice in writing from either the Client or the Broker to the other;
- (b) upon the Broker becoming insolvent;
- (c) upon the termination or suspension of the Broker from CHESS Sponsorship; or
- (d) upon the giving of Withdrawal Instructions by the Client to the Broker in accordance with ASX Settlement Rule 7.1.10(c).

70.2 Termination of this Sponsorship Agreement under clause 70.1(a) will be effective upon receipt of Notice by the other party.

70.3 Termination of this Sponsorship Agreement does not affect the existing rights and obligations of the Client or the Broker at termination, and does not terminate any other Part of this Agreement.

71 Variation

71.1 The Broker may vary this Sponsorship Agreement by giving the Client written notice of the variation. The Broker must give at least seven (7) Business Days written notice of the variation if, in the reasonable opinion of the Broker, the variation is to remove any inconsistency between this Agreement and the Rules.

71.2 Except to the extent that clause 71.1 applies, this Sponsorship Agreement may be varied by the Broker giving the Client not less than seven (7) days' notice to the Client by electronic mail or by updating its Website.

Schedule of Terms – Additional Terms for Algorithmic Trading

This Schedule of Terms applies when trading with Algorithms (as defined below) on a Client's Trading Account. For the avoidance of doubt, such terms apply in addition and supplemental to any other terms in the CMC Markets Stockbroking Terms and Conditions (General Terms).

In the event of an inconsistency between this Schedule of Terms, the General Terms and any other term or document referred to in either document, the terms of this Schedule of Terms shall prevail.

The Broker may, in its absolute discretion, make Algorithms available to the Client, through the platform, to enable a Client to place an Algorithmic Instruction from time to time, taking into account a range of factors including a Client's ability to understand and manage the complexity of trading with Algorithms.

1 Additional Definitions

In addition to the Definitions section in the General Terms, capitalised terms used in this Schedule of Terms shall have the meanings set out below:

Algorithm	An application that will enable a Client to place an Algorithmic Instruction which generates Order(s) based on parameters specified.
Algorithmic Instruction	An instruction to place Order(s) using an Algorithm.
Open/Close	This is a type of Algorithm which places Orders targeting the ASX opening or closing auctions (as applicable).
TWAP	Time-weighted average price. This is a type of Algorithm which places Orders equally across a specified time period.
VWAP	Volume-weighted average price. This is a type of Algorithm which places Orders in line with expected volumes within the specified time period.

2 Algorithms

- 2.1 We may, in our sole discretion, make different types of Algorithms available to the Client through the platform to enable a Client to place Algorithmic Instructions. We may withdraw any such Algorithms in our sole discretion, without notice to the Client, for any reason, including where we no longer consider it suitable to offer it to a Client.
- 2.2 Subject to us making Algorithms available to a Client, a Client can access relevant information on each Algorithm through the platform. This information includes the parameters that a Client must specify in order to place an Algorithmic Instruction in respect of a particular type of Algorithm.
- 2.3 Algorithms are used to determine the price, volume, quantity and nature of any Orders that result from an Algorithmic Instruction. The Algorithms are the property of our underlying providers. For the avoidance of doubt, any intellectual property in the Algorithms remains the property of our underlying providers (in accordance with and subject to the provisions in clause 31.3 of the General Terms) and such providers assume no liability, responsibility or obligations to the Client and the Client shall have no contractual or other relationship with such providers.

3 Algorithms

- 3.1 If we have enabled Algorithms on your Trading Account, a number of Algorithms may be available to you, including the following:
 - VWAP;
 - TWAP; and
 - Open/Close.

These are subject to change without notice. Further information is available on the platform.

4 Trading with Algorithms

- 4.1 To trade with Algorithms, the Client must select an Algorithm and provide the information requested by the platform, which shall include setting the parameters on which the operation of the Algorithm shall be based and specifying the relevant financial product in relation to which the Algorithm should generate Orders.
- 4.2 For the avoidance of doubt, once the Client has placed an Algorithmic Instruction, the Client shall be responsible for and bound by any and all Orders arising or resulting from such Algorithmic Instruction.
- 4.3 Once initiated, the Client will be solely responsible for monitoring the performance and effect of the Algorithmic Instruction.

5 Cancelling an Algorithmic Instruction

- 5.1 The Client may cancel (but not amend) an Algorithmic Instruction through the platform. However, a cancellation will only take effect once it has been received and processed by the platform. In certain circumstances, there may be a delay between the Client submitting a request to cancel an Algorithmic Instruction and that cancellation request taking effect. In such circumstances, the Client shall remain responsible for and bound by any and all Orders arising or resulting from the relevant Algorithmic Instruction until the cancellation takes effect, notwithstanding the fact that such Orders may not be in accordance with the Client's subsequent cancellation.
- 5.2 For the avoidance of doubt, the Broker may cancel an Algorithmic Instruction without warning in its sole discretion, for any reason.

6 Risks

- 6.1 If the Broker has enabled Algorithms on a Client's Trading Account, the Client agrees not to trade with Algorithms unless the Client fully understands the risks involved. If the Client is in doubt, the Client must seek independent professional advice, prior to trading with Algorithms.
- 6.2 The Client is responsible for and bound by any and all Orders entered into as a result of an Algorithmic Instruction. Once the Client has placed an Algorithmic Instruction, the Algorithm will continuously and independently place Orders based on parameters specified by the Client.
- 6.3 The Broker may use one or a number of underlying providers in making Algorithms available to the Client. The Client acknowledges that there may be instances of delay, failure or inaccuracy in, or the loss of access to, the provision of Algorithms, which may be outside of the control of the Broker, including as a result of a failure by, or otherwise arising from an act or omission by the Broker's provider(s).
- 6.4 Underlying Algorithms used in executing an Algorithmic Instruction may vary. When a Client places an, Algorithmic Instruction, it will be executed using the Algorithm selected on the platform, but the actual underlying methodology used by our underlying providers may vary and, as a result, the Client may achieve a different result (regardless of the fact that one Algorithm shares the same execution objective as another Algorithm of the same type).
- 6.5 Cancellations may not take effect immediately. Cancellation of an Algorithmic Instruction will only take effect once it has been received and processed by the platform. As a result, the Client agrees that it may be responsible for and bound by Orders arising or resulting from an Algorithmic Instruction even after the Client has purported to cancel it.

7 Fees

- 7.1 The Client is liable for fees and costs associated with trading with Algorithms.
- 7.2 Fees and costs relating to use of Algorithms can be found in the Broker's Financial Services Guide.
