

This statement is made pursuant to section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and sets out the approach taken by CMC Markets plc (registration number 05145017) and all our subsidiaries and branches (“the CMC Group”) to understand all potential modern slavery risks related to our business, and the actions undertaken to mitigate any such risks for the last financial year.

The CMC Group is not aware of any slavery or human trafficking in any part of our business or supply chain. The CMC Group is committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business dealings and relationships and to improving our practices to combat slavery and human trafficking.

OUR BUSINESS

As a leading global provider of online retail trading, the CMC Group offers clients the opportunity to trade the financial markets via contracts for difference (CFDs), financial spread betting (UK & Ireland only), Countdowns and digital 100s. The CMC Group also offers a stockbroking service in Australia.

OUR SUPPLY CHAINS

Given the nature of our business, the CMC Group assesses that the risk of modern slavery and human trafficking in our business and supply chain is low. The CMC Group carries out due diligence on all new suppliers, agents, consultants and contractors throughout our supply chain to ensure the potential for modern slavery and human trafficking is significantly reduced. The CMC Group expects organisations with which it does business to adopt and enforce policies to comply with the legislation and does not knowingly support or conduct business with a company involved in slavery or human trafficking.

OUR POLICIES ON MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Our anti-slavery policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our business or supply chains.

The CMC Group has clear employment policies and processes in place, employees’ failure to comply with these can result in disciplinary action. CMC Group also has a whistle blowing policy in place, which encourages employees to report any wrongdoing including those related to modern slavery and human trafficking.

ANNUAL REVIEW

The CMC Group will conduct an annual review of this statement.

Approved by the Board of Directors of CMC Markets plc on 28 March 2018.

Peter Cruddas
CEO
CMC Markets plc